Friday 11th February 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

The pupils have had a brilliant week of learning linked to their project inquiry questions along with learning based on being safe online and thinking about children's mental health. Everyone looked amazing in their 'dress to express' outfits today and they have enjoyed sharing their reasons behind their outfit choices.

Please visit our social media sites for more information on the learning completed this week.

Please note: we will be on Week 3 when we return from half term (see dates at top of each menu). The menu will also be available on the school website in the Parents/School Dinners section.

The new menu we have received from Aspens does not include sandwiches; instead there will be the option of Hot Tomato (or plain) Pasta with a choice of toppings each day, as well as jacket potatoes as normal. We will be trialling this for the first three weeks after half term.
